

San Pedro Chamber of Commerce

390 W. 7th St. San Pedro CA 90731

www.sanpedrochamber.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: JUDITH BLAHNIK
310-832-3545

WHAT: Downtown San Pedro's Historic Waterfront District
First Thursday ArtWalk

WHEN: March 6, 2008
5:30-9:00PM

DETAILS: Now in its 11th year, the First Thursday ArtWalk draws more artists, locals and the nearby culture-curious than ever. Enjoy the renowned hospitality of local artists who open their studios for the night, the current gallery exhibits, casual shopping at un-common stores, live music and an eclectic array of fine dining.

Highlights for March 6th

Artist and gallerist Debbie Marr presents her own work plus works by Michael Sebastian, Larry Lebow, Richard Stephens & Tony Podue, with live music by singer/songwriter Karie Hiller. Gallery 741 & Gallery 731 @ 741— 731 Pacific

Artist Ray Carofano presents Expectations and Demands, acrylics on canvas by Harold Plople. From the surviving side of mental illness, Plople's work is brilliant with humor and instinctual truth. Live music usually begins at 9:00

Gallery 478 @ 478 W. 7th Street

AND

Angels' Ink: group show, Syncopation, 362 W 7th St.

Medea Gallery: aboriginal art by Leandro Manzo, 445 W 7th St.

Studio 339: Morocco, Photos by Connie St. Jean and Belly Dancing, 339 W 7th.

Gallery Azul: Archetypal Women by Alexia Kutzner, 520 8th St.

Mishi's Strudel Bakery & Café: Live music and opera, 301 W. 7th.

WHERE: Located in historic downtown San Pedro between 6th and 8th Streets from Pacific Ave. to Centre Street, the First Thursday ArtWalk is actively supported by San Pedro's Chamber of Commerce and Downtown Business Improvement District.

PUBLIC Chamber phone: 310-832-7272
INFO: www.sanpedrochamber.com